

TINE WILDE

Born 1955 in Nijmegen, the Netherlands. Lives and works in Amsterdam (NL).

Biography

- 1955 Born 1955 in Nijmegen, the Netherlands.
- 1964 Starts drawing and is particularly interested in the big unanswerable questions posed by philosophy and religion. Acquires her first camera.
- 1980 Begins study at AKI Academy of Art & Design, Enschede. Special interest in conceptual art and photography from Japan and China. Develops a fascination for all sorts of colour systems. 1980-1982.
- 1989 Invited by Lucie Vergriete for a three month artist-in-residence at La Chaux-de-Fonds (CH), birthplace of Le Corbusier, resulting in project Gold. Exhibitions of installations in Switzerland and the Netherlands, most notably tripartite-slide installation Signs of Life commissioned by University of Twente (NL). Begins to work in large-scale projects, later called InstallationPackages.
- 1990 Start of first large-scale package Rhine, investigating the concept 'Life Quality' along the river Rhine from different perspectives at four locations Schaffhausen, Strasbourg, Cologne and Rotterdam. 1990-1992.
- 1992 Receives international recognition for performance Von Märchen und Gespenster in Cologne (DE), crossing the river Rhine wrapped up in bandages. Works three months in a residency at Noordereiland, Rotterdam (NL) 1|6-6|9 1992.
- 1993 Produces installation Puzzled Windows, commissioned by De Achterstraat in Hoorn (NL), together with a series of inkjet colour photo-prints.
- 1994 Exhibition of installation Unter der Laterne commissioned by Frauenmuseum Bonn (DE) for Stadt der Frauen. 1994-1995.
- 1996 Investigates in package House the question what happens to a human being when left to her own resources in a two-week solitary holiday at the fall-out shelter Dalfsen. Writes extensively about this topic for newspapers and produces installation The world is most beautiful the moment she stops including a series of monochromes Rorschach Raumüberdruck, and a board game The Great Survival Game. 1996-1998.
- 1998 Begins a study in philosophy and obtains a Master in Arts for an inquiry into Wittgenstein's remarks on colour from the University of Amsterdam. 1998-2001.

- 2004 Appointed researcher in philosophy and art with package Do not Erase . . . wait for Meaning at the University of Amsterdam. The project aimed to shed light on the ways in which art and philosophy might have something to say to each other. Includes various (photo)installations and small publications. 2004-2008.
- 2006 Publishes Remodel[ing] Reality, an overview of the most important projects, presented together with performance Language and her Tightly-Whities at Arti et Amicitiae, Amsterdam.
- 2008 Obtains a doctorate from the University of Amsterdam for project Do not Erase and publication Remodel[ing] Reality. Supervisor Martin Stokhof and experts Michael Craig-Martin and Liam Gillick. 12|11 2008.
- 2009 Starts package BackPack with performance Tryout Testimonial at RC Deruimte in IJmuiden (NL) and an exhibition based on Max Lüscher's colour system Six Identical Boxes and a Neutral Background in Assen (NL). Produces photo series Broken Cosmos. 2009-2016.
- 2011 Installs permanent photo-installation Corrido[r]-Empty Space at Oude Turfmarkt, commissioned by the philosophy department University of Amsterdam.
- 2012 Contributes to Berlin's DAAD gallery installation of the Agency of Unrealized Projects AUP with theStore – Construct of a Life Package.
- 2013 Investigates as part of package BackPack the concepts of 'Guilt' and 'Shame' from various angles. Organises and chairs two symposia on the topic, including keynote speakers Bettina Stangneth (philosopher-DE), Jessica Stern (expert on terrorism-USA), Damiaan Denys (psychiatrist-NL). Produces installation Lebensraum at the center for contemporary art Kunstfort near Vijfhuizen (NL) and performance SWEEP, commissioned by gallery space Castrum Peregrini in Amsterdam. 2013-2015.
- 2016 Publishes text and photographs on guilt and shame in Over Schuld en Schaamte. Starts package SpaceTimes with an inquiry into the concept of religious experience with project Soul Space.

Education

Autonomous Art, AKI Academy for Art & Design, Enschede.

M.A. philosophy, PhD philosophy and artwork, University of Amsterdam.

Website: www.tinewilde.com